SWEEP EVERYTHING

49, 407; No. 49, 463; No. 50, 487; No. 51, 523; No. 52, 730; total names registered, 1,154, or approximately 1,154 in excess of the actual number of voters.

District No. 50, which, at the election in 1896, gave Holbrook, Republican, a plurality for congressman, 112 votes, King, 77, and Foster, 2. This time polled 31 straight Democratic votes, 11 Republican, 5 Popular, 2 for Lewis (Independent), and 10 scratched. A total of 200 votes out of a registration of about 241, showing only about 80 per cent of voters voting.

Election Notes.

Hon. A. W. McCune had the thanks of the election officials and the workers around the polls, by sending them sumptuous chicken dinners. The Democratic voters, in the Thirtieth ward, went into the booth and party cheered after 45 minutes, to ask the judges, "When are you going to let me out of here?"

Judge Barch remained so long in a booth at his district poll, that the judges thought he was asleep. He voted his ticket (Republican) he took a long time to prepare it.

IN WEBER COUNTY.

Republicans Probably Elect County and Legislative Ticket.

Election day in Ogden dawned bright and clear, though the air was keen, almost frosty. With favorable weather a heavy vote was forecast, but as the hours rolled by the vote did not come out. The slowness of the voting was a source of general comment. The candidates were not very active and had the larger vehicles in various towns, evening the vote. Increased and the judges were kept pretty busy from 8 o'clock until the hour of closing. The widest kind of guesses were indulged in, but there were few indications on which to base predictions. There appeared to be a great effort to keep the uncertainty as to the final outcome was everywhere in evidence.

Ogden, Nov. 8.—A. W. McCune, the indications at this the Republican party have elected their entire county and legislative ticket. Roberts and Baskin will have a majority.

Straight ballots from 238 Democrats, 178 fusion, 257, Roberts is on both Democratic and fusion tickets.

Tooele County.

Tooele, Nov. 8.—Roberts, 125; Eldridge, 133; Delamater, 142; Richards, 142. Republicans seem to carry ticket, except Richards. Three commissioners and recorder are Democrats, the sheriff Republican, while the city attorney is doubtful. The assessor and clerk are probably Republicans.

Utah County.

Nephi, Nov. 8.—Mona precinct estimated, the vote is 56 Republican and 10 Democratic. It will be daylight before the count is completed. The Democrats have carried Utah county by 250 majority, and elect their full ticket.

PUERTO RICAN LABOR

Plantations Furnish the Greater Portion of Employment.

WAGES OF THE WORKMEN

CHEAP LABOR EXPENSIVE, IF JUDGED BY PRODUCT.

"The Blacker the Better," a Maxim of Employers—Very Few Manufacturers On the Island—Cigar Making the Leading Industry In Cities—Expense of Living.

Wages of the unskilled laborers employed in the canefields of Puerto Rico—unskilled, at any rate, except for the knack of handling the machete and doing the simple work of the field—have been from 50 to 60 centavos a day, varying with the demand for labor, the strength of the laborer and the location of the plantation, writes Trumbull White from San Juan to the Chicago Record. Mr. Marr, the Scotch manager of the Central de Canavanas, tells me that wages never have fluctuated with the fluctuations of the rate of foreign exchange, nor has the manner of living practiced on the plantations varied from the same cause. The exception to this has been only in the cost of rice, which is a staple food of the laborers, and largely imported. As exchange became higher the price of rice rose, and the ability of laborers to purchase it diminished. Just about enough corn is raised for the local demands, some years producing enough for export to Cuba. This staple food, therefore, has fluctuated but little. The cotton pods from which the plantation laborers make their clothes later to be imported, and vary slightly in cost with the fluctuations of exchange. But they do not wear many clothes, and if cotton becomes too expensive it is not a great hardship in this climate for people to economize rigidly in its use.

The regular wage day on the plantations is at the end of the week, but laborers are permitted to draw their earnings daily if they choose. They are in the habit of saving their money, and obtain advance orders on the stores when they come to work in the morning, in order to get food for the same day's breakfast—breakfast, meaning here, as in other Spanish countries, the meal just before midday. The early work of the day is done in the morning, and there wasn't $100 offered to-night by either side that was not covered. John Wilson met all corners against Roberts as long as his money lasted, and when he gave it out, tonight that he had everything up, a local business man Peter Anderson offered to wager Wilson a sum of money against Wilson's family cow. Anderson promptly made out a bill of sale and put the same in escrow. Two hundred and seven votes were cast here today. The counting is very slow, and it is not until about 10:30 p. m. Eldridge was 12 ahead.

Carbon County.

Price, Utah, Nov. 8.—The election here today passed off quietly. There was not a single disturbance of any character, notwithstanding the betting ran high and at even money on Roberts and Eldridge. There was a considerable amount placed, probably $5,000, and there wasn't $100 offered to-night by either side that was not covered. Price, Utah, Nov. 8.—The election here today passed off quietly. There was not a single disturbance of any character, notwithstanding the betting ran high and at even money on Roberts and Eldridge. There was a considerable amount placed, probably $5,000, and there wasn't $100 offered to-night by either side that was not covered. John Wilson met all corners against Roberts as long as his money lasted, and when he gave it out, tonight that he had everything up, a local business man Peter Anderson offered to wager Wilson a sum of money against Wilson's family cow. Anderson promptly made out a bill of sale and put the same in escrow. Two hundred and seven votes were cast here today. The counting is very slow, and it is not until about 10:30 p. m. Eldridge was 12 ahead.
